

6 Special Olympics

A person-to-person program. the Illinois Department of the American Legion actively supports Illinois Special Olympics, in terms of both man hours spent conducting local events and financial sponsorship as well. We believe there is no such thing as handicapped people . . . only truly special people.